Escape to the stunning Ribble Valley and enjoy a lakeside position nestled at the bottom of Pendle Hill and surrounded by the picturesque Ribble Valley countryside. Pendle View, Barrow offers the perfect blend of semi rural living coupled with superb quality accommodation and great access to the amenities of the historic nearby town of Clitheroe with it's Norman Castle and Whalley with it's famous Abbey.

The lodge site itself is accessed via a private gated driveway which winds around the site and it's 3 lakes which are adjoined on 3 sides by open fields. Many of the lodges offer their own decked patios over looking the lakes, with pontoons and even hot tubs built in to further add to the appeal and charm.

The site offers a mixture of single and twin lodges, all of an excellent specification, fitted out with high quality kitchens and bathrooms, all furnished and finished to a stunning standard. Details include, vaulted ceilings with velux windows, bi fold doors onto the decked patios, high quality built in surround sounds systems and even hidden en-suite shower rooms.

Leave Clitheroe on Pendle Road and take a right turn at the roundabout on the A59 bypass. Follow the road down to the next roundabout and stay in the left hand lane. Cross the roundabout and almost immediately turn left onto the Pendle View site. Follow the road around and back on itself to come to the gated driveway.
